

HETSA 2009 program

	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
9.00-10.30		Classical 1 1. 'Universal Opulence': Smith on Technical Progress and Real Wages Tony Aspromourgos 2. On the Transformation in Tooke's Monetary Thought Matthew Smith 3. Happiness and Religion: Joseph Priestley's Theological Utilitarianism Akihito Matsumoto	Classical 2 1. Lloyd in Context: Oriel Noetics vs Christ Church Realists Gregory Moore and M. V. White 2. Law Reform, Registration and Credit in Seventeenth Century England Seiichiro Ito 3. The Political Economy of Edmund Burke: A New Perspective Nobuhiko Nakazawa	Information, Time and Discovery 1. Keynes Or Knight: Who Was First With The Risk-Uncertainty Distinction? Rod O'Donnell 2. Shackle and the Austrians Bruce Littleboy 3. In Search Of New Atlantis: What Can HET On Innovation Reveal About The Path Out Of The 2009 Great Recession? Jerry Courvisanos
10.30-11.00		Coffee	Coffee	Coffee
11.00-12.30		Austrian 1 1. Capital As A Layer Cake: Menger And Lachmann On The Nature Of Capital David A Harper and Anthony M Endres 2. Hayek's Road to Serfdom in Contexts Jeremy Shearmur 3. Carl Menger's Liberalism Revisited Yukihiro Ikeda	Austrian 2 1. Some Critical Perspectives on Böhm-Bawerk Peter Groenewegen 2. The Categorical Requisite of Mises's Pure Time-Preference Theory of Interest Troy P Lynch 3. An Incomplete Temporalization: The Reason Böhm-Bawerk's Regression Shigeki TOMO	Austrian 3 1. Schumpeter's Price Theory Harry Bloch 2. Wieser's epistemological position as a reformulation of Menger's empiricism Natsuka Tokumaru 3. Carl Menger Vs. His Successors In The Austrian Tradition On Capital And Its Structure A. M. Endres and D. Harper
12.30-1.30		Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
1.30-3.00		Keynesian 1. Subverting Say's Law: Keynes, Commons and Harlan McCracken Steven Kates 2. On Essays in Biography by Keynes Richard J. Kent 3. The Contribution of E.L. Wheelwright to the Principles of Political Economy Phil O'Hara	Twentieth Century 1. Hicks's Theory of the Wage Bargain: a Rational Reconstruction William Coleman  AGM	Individuals 1. The Economist as Gadfly: The machinations of Lord John Vaizey's Life Alex Millmow 2. Henry George on Value from Obligation John Pullen 3. A Japanese Contribution to the Calculation Debate: K. Yamamoto Hiroyuki Okon
3.00-3.30		Coffee	Coffee	Coffee
3.30-5.00	From 5.00-6.00 Donald Winch Keynote Address "Intellectual History and the History of Economic Thought: A Personal View"  Followed by Opening Drinks	Small Open Economy 1. Wilfred Edward Graham Salter: The Merits of a Classical Economic Education Ernst Juerg Weber 2. W. B. Sutch and his economics of national independence - a reappraisal Saburo Ito 3. Trade in a Messy World: Three Studies in Jacob Viner's International Economics Paul Oslington	HER Editorial Board Meeting  Conference Dinner 6.30-10.30 After Dinner Speaker: Jeremy Shearmur	History of Economics in Western Australia 1. Teaching and Research in Economics in Western Australia, 1935-1963: Ray Petridis 2. Charles Harper and the Foundation of Co-operative Agriculture in Western Australia D. J. Gilchrist 3. Economics in the Wild West: A Preliminary Review, 1963 to 1992 Michael McLure